

ADVENTUROUS MIDWEEKENDER

HIT THE TRAILS, EXPLORE THE CITY AND ENJOY THE SUNSHINE.

WELCOME TO SLO

- Explore downtown a bit and do some shopping. The Mountain Air has something for every outdoor enthusiast, tending to their every nature need!
- Grab dinner to-go and head up Terrace Hill for a breathtaking sunset.

TIME TO EXPLORE

- Get a taste of SLO coffee culture and start your day with a cup of joe and breakfast at one of our many coffee houses.
- Head up Highway 101 to Reservoir Canyon or trek to Cerro San Luis (what the locals call Madonna Mountain) at the west edge of town — both offer gorgeous sweeping views of the city and 7 Sisters Peaks.
- Grab lunch and a local brew from Libertine Brewing (try the Totchos!) — you earned it.
- Competitive? Challenge your skills at Central Coast Archery.
- Head 15 minutes south to Oceano State Beach, the last beach in CA that you can drive on, and enjoy a bonfire with s'mores!

SEE YOU SOON!

- Grab an acai bowl or smoothie from Seeds to start your day off right.
- Not quite ready to hit the road? Explore the Cal Poly botanical garden or the creek downtown. Maybe squeeze in one last hike in Irish Hills — often compared to the rolling green hills of Ireland.
- Safe travels!

INSIDER TIPS

- There are more than 50 miles of hiking and biking trails in the city and all are dog friendly.
- The Jennifer Street Bridge at the train station was built to bring cyclists and pedestrians downtown, connecting with the San Luis Obispo Rail Trail regional bike path.
- Dress in layers! Foggy mornings tend to burn off and turn into warm days, but end in cooler nights.
